

CFUW Announces Election of 2024-2026 Board of Directors

(August 12, 2024) CFUW is proud to announce the election of our new national Board of Directors for 2024-2026.

Members of our federation from across the country gathered in Edmonton on July 22nd, 2024 to elect ten distinguished women to our national Board. Congratulations to each of these women for joining this exciting next chapter in CFUW's storied history:

Linda Sestock, President

Heather Oxman, Vice President, Advocacy

Audrey Hobbs-Johnson, Vice President, Education

Susan Lane, Vice President, Finance

Grace Hollett, Vice President, International Relations

Anne Cordon, Vice President, Membership

Sheila Service, Vice President, British Columbia

Barbara Gustafson, Vice President, Prairies

Sandra Shaw, Vice President, Ontario

Karen Dunnett, Vice President, Atlantic Region

The newly-elected Board members bring diverse skills and backgrounds to our national organization, with representation from each of our national regions: British Columbia, the Prairies, Ontario, Quebec, and the Atlantic Region. Each Board member is a passionate advocate for women's rights and social justice, with valuable experience in working collaboratively to maximize the collective impact of our federation.

"I am thrilled to be working with such an amazing group of women on the Board. Everyone brings something unique, and I can't wait to see what we achieve together for our organization" said Linda Sestock, CFUW National President.

The new Board of Directors will no doubt continue to build on the strong foundation laid by their predecessors. We express heartfelt gratitude to the outgoing Board of Directors that served our federation and its members with unwavering dedication from 2022-2024:

Joy Hurst, President

Heather Oxman, Vice President, Advocacy

Kathy Wosnick, Vice President, Education

Susan Lane, Vice President, Finance

Barbara DuMoulin, Vice President, International Relations

Marcia Armstrong, Vice President, Membership

Sheila Service, Vice President, British Columbia

Vicky Grabb, Vice President, Prairies

Teresa Habs, Vice President, Ontario

Linda Sestock, Vice President, Quebec and Deputy President

Karen Dunnett, Vice President, Atlantic Region

Thank you to both the outgoing and the incoming members of our national Board of Directors for your leadership, wisdom, and commitment to CFUW's mission and vision.

ABOUT CFUW

Founded in 1919, CFUW is a self-funded, non-partisan organization of over 6,600 women and 94 Clubs across Canada that works to improve the status of women by promoting human rights, public education, social justice, and peace in Canada and abroad. CFUW Clubs grant over $1 million a year in scholarships and awards, and work actively in their communities to advance our mission of achieving equality and social justice through continuous learning and empowerment. CFUW holds special consultative status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council and is the largest affiliate of Graduate Women International.
