Report of the Resolutions Committee 2024

Grace Hollett, Chair CFUW Resolutions

Committee Members: Joy Hurst, Bonnie Jensen, Monique Sirios Kelly, Bilkies McKen, Heather Oxman, Wendy Taylor, Margaret Therrien

Consultant: Kenzie Zimmer, CFUW National Advocacy and Policy Specialist

Resolutions adopted since June 2023 Report

Since this committee’s report of June 2023, five resolutions were adopted at the 2023 Policy Session and were actioned by CFUW beginning through the Fall Advocacy program. Those were: Archiving Select Policies I and II; Immigration Detention in Canada; Towards a comprehensive maternal death prevention strategy; and Advancing sustainable development and gender equality through international trade agreements. The resolution on Lyme disease was not adopted.

September-November 2023

In September 2023-2024 the committee finalized and published the annual revision of Resolutions Information and Guidelines. The modified Resolutions schedule and process were then workshopped, on September 28, in a Zoom session by the Resolutions Committee, Kenzie Zimmer and recent Proposers, 2023.

Leading up to the deadline of November 15th for the submission of Resolution Intents, the Committee interacted with Clubs who were preparing their Intents to ensure proposed Intents did not duplicate existing accepted resolutions. An Intent submitted by CFUW Barrie and District on housing was deemed to be actionable through an existing adopted Resolution and the Club was advised they could action their proposal without waiting for another Resolution to be adopted.

Google Forms

The main change in the process this year, the use of Google Forms to make the communications system more efficient, was first in-serviced to the Resolutions Committee and then to Proposers, Amenders and Clubs. The system ran smoothly with only positive comments being received at the office when Intents were submitted using Google Forms. Some Clubs, however, during the later amendment process, emailed their amendments directly to Proposers rather than using the form, indicating a continued need to ensure members are more comfortable using Google Forms. The new spreadsheet system for amendments worked well.

2024 Resolutions

From ten Intents submitted, nine went on to be developed and eight of those will be presented at the 2024 Policy Session.

Resolution 1 – CFUW Advocacy Standing Committee

Archiving Select CFUW Adopted Resolutions I

Resolution 2– CFUW Advocacy Standing Committee

Archiving Select CFUW Adopted Resolutions II

Resolution 3 – CFUW Advocacy Standing Committee

Archiving CFUW Adopted Resolutions Identified for Combining

Resolution 4 – CFUW Advocacy Standing Committee

Combined CFUW Adopted Resolutions

Resolution 5 – CFUW North Delta / Surrey

Restore and Preserve Canada’s Peatlands

(Resolution 6 was withdrawn)

Resolution 7 – CFUW Nanaimo

Preserving Deep Sea Ecosystems

Resolution 8 – CFUW Advocacy Standing Committee

Ageing in Place: Resources for all Canadians to Age at Home and in Community Settings

Resolution 9 – CFUW Advocacy Standing Committee

Incentives to Adopt Current Standards for Long-Term Care

Resolution #6, National Database Documenting the Impact of Unsafe Drinking Water on Health in First Nation Communities was revised using the submitted amendments but was later withdrawn by the proposer Jane Watson of CFUW Georgetown in response to Club input, as she explained in Club Action News of April 26, 2024.

Nov. 15, 2023-Mar. 10, 2024

From November 15-22, the CFUW Resolutions Committee reviewed submitted Intents and provided comments to Proposers using Google Docs. Once accepted, Staff arranged translation and Intents were published. Proposers then developed the Resolved Clauses, Background, Implementation and Bibliography of their Resolutions for the deadline of February 9. This gave the Resolutions Committee from February 9 to February 23 to review the completed Resolutions and to send detailed comments to Proposers. From February 23-March 10, Proposers could review comments from the Resolutions Committee, make any needed changes, confirm that all Bibliography hyperlinks were active and submit the revised Resolutions to the National Advocacy and Policy Specialist, and to the Committee Chair, for publication in a special newsletter in English and French on March 12. Meanwhile, on March 4, leading up to the amendment process, Kenzie Zimmer hosted a workshop to show members how, by using Google Forms, proposed amendments could be sent and received more efficiently. The link to the recording was provided for any who missed this workshop.

March 12-May 24

From March 12 to April 24 Clubs were able to review the resolutions and propose amendments. Clubs sent 122 amendments to National Office through Google Forms which automatically recorded them, confirmed by receipt, and arranged access by relevant Proposer. Proposers collaborated with their committees and decided whether each amendment could be accepted, or not, (in whole or in part) and for what reasons. They put their responses to each amendment in the Google Sheets spreadsheets. By May 24, Amenders were advised of those decisions by Kenzie Zimmer who compiled responses from those written on the spreadsheets. It is expected that in future such information may be accessed directly from the spreadsheets.

When forwarding the revised text of the 2024 year's resolutions, Clubs were alerted to the changes made to the resolutions (as indicated in red text) resulting from the Proposers' consideration of proposed amendments and making every effort to integrate into the revised clauses, amendments that they considered improvements to the original wording. Clubs were reminded that the revisions might affect initial decisions made regarding their support of the Resolutions at the July Policy Session.

May 30 Workshop - June 5

Preceded by a preparatory session between the Committee, Proposers and the Parliamentarian, Elizabeth Haynes, a May 30 workshop was held for Proposers, Amenders and other Club members when each Proposer spoke on the amendments for her resolution and explained why she and her committee accepted some amendments, in whole or in part, and why some amendments were not accepted. Those who submitted amendments, and all other CFUW Club members, had an opportunity to discuss the revised resolutions with the proposers in the Q and A following each presentation. Those whose proposed amendments had not been accepted and who remained unsatisfied with the revised Resolved Clauses could speak on behalf of their proposed amendments. This collegial discussion resulted subsequently in a greater understanding of the process and in the Proposer accepting a further amendment to Resolution 5 by adding a third point at the end of Clause 2.

By June 5 all amended Resolutions had been forwarded to the Resolutions Chair and to the National Advocacy and Policy Specialist who arranged any further edits to the French translation and publishing the final wording in Club Action News on June 7.

Final preparations for the CFUW July 23 Policy Session

1. A practice on June 27 for the Proposers with the Committee and the Parliamentarian

2. A written record of all amendments and their acceptance or not, to facilitate handling of amendments from the floor, where only those amendments submitted already (and not accepted) are in order. This is for Policy Session Presiders and the Parliamentarian
3. Proposers (or their delegates) have been named to present the Resolutions on July 23.
4. The Committee Chair and Parliamentarian will confer on the procedure for presenting the Resolutions

Looking ahead to 2024-2025

The Resolutions Committee considered ways to extend the Resolutions period, and decided to promote starting the Intent process earlier, beginning this year, to enable submission by Nov. 1, 2024 rather than Nov. 15.

Acknowledgements

Thanks to all Proposers, Amenders and Clubs who became involved in Resolutions this year; to Kenzie Zimmer, Elizabeth Malcolm, Elizabeth Haynes, and the diligent, investigative members of the Resolutions Committees with whom I have worked during my four chairs chairing the Resolutions Committee.
